

5 Themes of Geography Brochure

The Franklin-Simpson Travel Society has asked our class to create a brochure that shows off the 5 Themes of Geography here in Franklin. The Travel Society wants our class to create a brochure because they have heard we have been studying the 5 Themes of Geography to start out the school year. However, the Travel Society does have certain requirements that we have to follow for them to consider your brochure. The requirements are belows:

Title Page (5 points): Has the title “The 5 Themes of Geography in Franklin” on the front, and catches the attention of people.

Movement (10 points): This page has the title “Movement,” and provides the definition, example in Franklin and why it is an example, and a picture that represents that example.

Region (10 points): This page has the title “Region,” and provides the definition, example in Franklin and why it is an example, and a picture that represents that example.

Human/Environment Interaction (10 points): This page has the title “Human/Environment Interaction,” and provides the definition, example in Franklin and why it is an example, and a picture that represents that example.

Location (10 points): This page has the title “Location,” and provides the definition, example in Franklin and why it is an example, and a picture that represents that example.

Place (10 points): This page has the title “Place,” and provides the definition, example in Franklin and why it is an example, and a picture that represents that example.

The Travel Society is crunched for time, so they need your brochures by Monday, August 28th! Also, they want this to be nice, neat, and colorful so people will want to keep this with them throughout their travels in Franklin.
