Population Study Guide

1.)What is the definition for population?

2.)What is demography?

3.)What is the definition for birthrate?

4.)What is the definition for death rate?

5.)The difference between the birthrate and death rate in a country is called?

6.)Explain the difference between immigration and emigration.

7.) What is the definition for rural?

8.) What is the definition for urban?

9.) What are the three types of human settlement patterns?

10.)Draw a picture for each of the three types of human settlement patterns and label them?

11.) What are the two factors that has helped increase birthrates and decrease death rates?

12.)What is the definition of population density?

13.)What is a push factor?

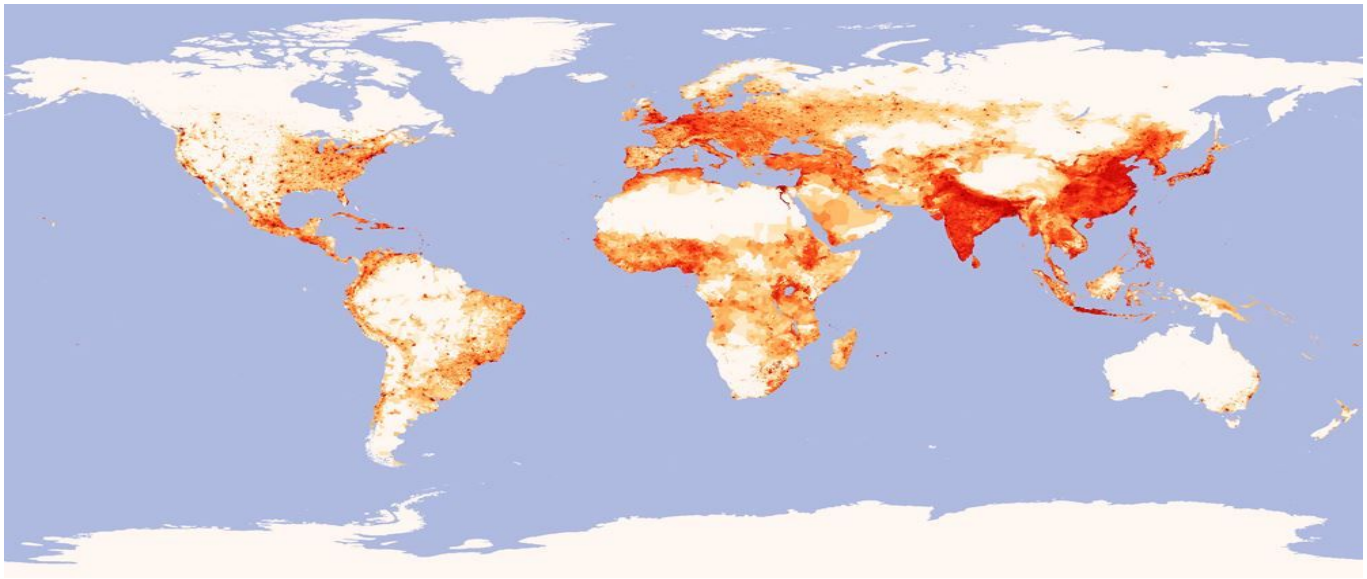
14.)What is a pull factor?

15.)List 4 examples of push factors.

16.)List 4 examples of pull factors.

17.) What are the 4 steps to follow when analyzing a population pyramid?

18.) What are the three types of growth we see in a population pyramid and what are the nicknames for them?



Use the Map above to answer whether the statements below are True or False.

19.) (True, False) People are not spread out evenly over the world.

20.) (True, False) Asia is the most densely populated continent.

21.) (True, False) Africa is a continent with few people.

22.) (True, False) South America is the most crowded continent.

23.) (True, False) Europe is a densely populated continent.

24.) (True, False) Some places are more crowded than others.

25.) (True, False) People are spread out evenly over Asia.

26.) (True, False) Australia and Canada are sparsely populated.

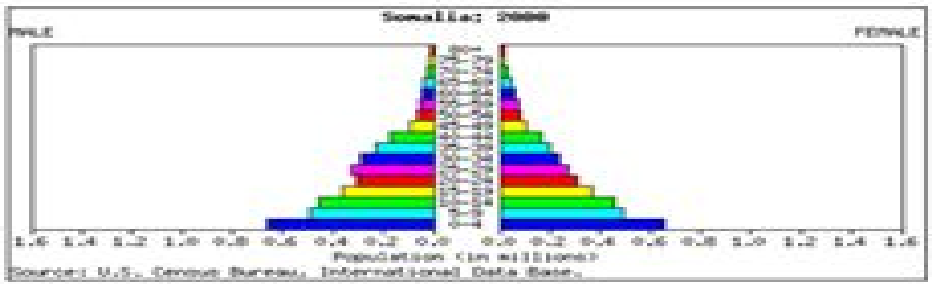
Population Pyramids

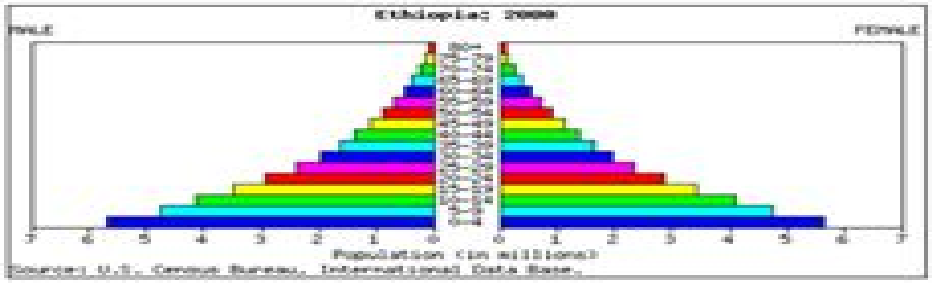


Biggest age group:

Smallest age group:

Bulges:

Type of Growth:

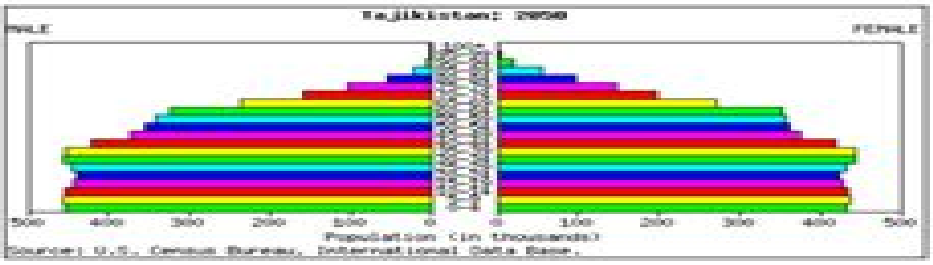


Biggest age group:

Smallest age group:

Bulges:

Type of Growth:

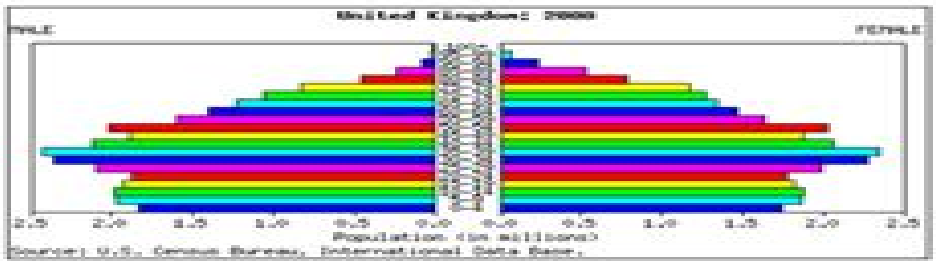


Biggest age group:

Smallest age group:

Bulges:

Type of Growth:

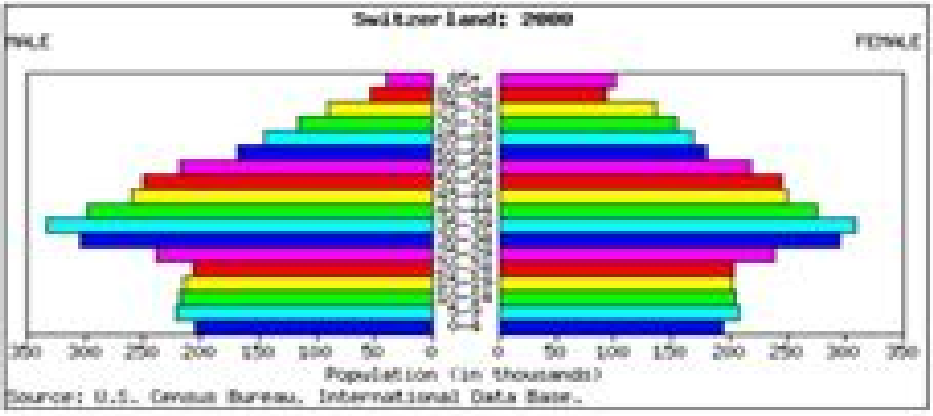


Biggest age group:

Smallest age group:

Bulges:

Type of Growth:



Biggest age group:

Smallest age group:

Bulges:

Type of Growth: